

50 Years of the AAPT

July 22-26, 2026

CALL FOR PROPOSALS

The AAPT invites proposals for interactive, pedagogy-focused sessions at the 2026 Workshop-Conference on Teaching Philosophy, July 22-26, 2026, at Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, MI. This conference will be a celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the organization, which was founded in 1976 to improve the quality of philosophy instruction, promote scholarship in philosophical pedagogy, and support teachers. Proposals must be submitted by January 12.

philosophyteachers.org/cfp-2026-conference

2026 Workshop-Conference on Teaching Philosophy

We welcome proposals for interactive individual or panel workshop sessions related to teaching and learning philosophy at any educational level.

Potential topics include:

- The past and future of philosophy education
- Creative uses of instructional technologies
- Diversity and inclusion in our classrooms or our discipline
- Innovative and successful course design, assignment design, or teaching strategies
- How work in other disciplines can improve the teaching of philosophy
- Professional issues connected to teaching
- Teaching in non-traditional settings
- The impact of AI or other technologies on philosophy education

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: JANUARY 12, 2026

July 22-26, 2026

Eastern Michigan University

Ypsilanti, MI

