

2021 Summer Series

THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF PHILOSOPHY TEACHERS 2021 SUMMER SERIES

The series will focus on four themes, each on a different day:

Who we Teach — June 9, 11 a.m. – 4:15 p.m. (EST)

On this day, we introduce the series, and focus on diversity, inclusion; access, retention, K-12, gen ed, institutional setting, and more.

What we Teach — June 23, 11 a.m. – 4:15 p.m. (EST)

On this day, we center themes like critical thinking, questioning, listening, reading, writing, curricula, courses, texts, learning outcomes, etc.

How we Teach — July 14, 1 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. (EST)

On this day, we turn our attention to the ways in which we approach our content to improve learning, such as High-Impact Practices, assessment, assignment design, games, technologies, and more.

Why we Teach — July 28, 2:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m. (EST)

On this final day, we bring together many themes from the series, and attend to the bigger question of Why: What's at stake, what's our purpose, what's the role of philosophy and what are the reasons we teach it.
