

2022 Conference

Call for Proposals

Twenty-Third Biennial Workshop-
Conference on Teaching Philosophy

Otterbein University
July 27-31, 2022
Westerville, Ohio

Topics:

Interactive sessions related to teaching and learning philosophy at any educational level are welcome. We encourage creative approaches to individual or panel workshops on:

- Innovative and successful teaching strategies, course/assignment design
- How work in other disciplines can improve the teaching of philosophy
- Innovative uses of instructional technologies
- Teaching in non-traditional settings
- Methods to improve student learning
- Professional issues connected to teaching
- Diversity and Inclusion in our classrooms and discipline

This year's highlighted topic is: (Re)Newing Communities

- Meeting head-on the challenges to our communities, both those created by the pandemic and those that it merely laid bare
- The role of joy, hope, gratitude in building and sustaining communities
- Creating communities that are more inclusive and just
- The classroom as a community

Proposals should include:

- ❖ Session title
- ❖ Length of the proposed session: 30 minute session, 60-minute session, 90-minute session.
- ❖ 100-200 word abstract suitable for the conference program.
- ❖ 1-3 page description of session goals and interactive design, planned handouts, etc.
- ❖ A list of relevant sources.

To facilitate anonymous review, no identifying information should appear in the proposal. Please include contact information for each presenter, including institutional affiliations, in the email or on a separate cover sheet.

Send submissions, via email, to Jane Drexler, at jane.drexler@slcc.edu
Submission Deadline: January 21, 2022

The AAPT is a collegial community of engaged teacher-scholars, dedicated to sharing ideas, experiences, and advice about teaching philosophy, and to the support and encouragement of both new and experienced philosophy teachers.
